Why a coin slows down · Questions 1–6

A force is a push or a pull. When a moving coin touches a surface, friction acts in the opposite direction to its movement. Friction makes the coin slow down. A smooth surface such as ceramic tile usually creates less friction than cork. With very little friction, an object travels farther before stopping. The amount of friction also depends on how firmly two surfaces press together. Friction is useful too: it helps shoes grip the ground and bicycle brakes stop wheels. Without enough friction, people could slip and tyres could slide. Too much friction can be unhelpful because moving parts may heat up or wear away, so machines sometimes use oil to reduce it.

1 Why a coin slows down: What makes the moving coin slow down?

- A gravity pulling it sideways B light warming the surface
C sound pushing it forward D friction acting against its movement

2 Why a coin slows down: What would most likely happen if there were very little friction?

- A The coin would change colour. B The coin would stop at once.
C The coin would travel farther before stopping. D The coin would become heavier.

3 Why a coin slows down: Mark each statement True or False.

Statement	True	False
Friction can help bicycle brakes work.	☐	☐
Cork usually creates less friction than ceramic tile.	☐	☐
Friction acts against a moving object.	☐	☐

4 Why a coin slows down: Which surface would probably let the object travel farthest?

- A ceramic tile B cork
C a thick towel D a rubber mat

5 Why a coin slows down: Which diagram shows the applied force and friction acting in opposite directions?

- A push → friction → B push ← friction ←
C push ↓ friction ↓ D push → ← friction

6 Why a coin slows down: Which pair of statements is correct?

- 1 The text explains how friction changes movement.
2 The text gives examples of useful friction.
3 The text tells a fictional adventure.

- A 2 and 3 B 3 only
C 1 and 2 D 1 and 3

Testing surfaces with a coin · Questions 7–12

This experiment compares how far the same coin travels across ceramic tile, paper and cork. Use the same ramp each time.

1. Place the ramp at the marked height.
2. Put ceramic tile at the bottom of the ramp.
3. Release the coin without pushing it.
4. Measure and record the distance travelled.
5. Repeat the trial 3 times for each surface, then compare the results.

7 Testing surfaces with a coin: Number these steps from 1 to 4.

- ___ Put ceramic tile at the bottom of the ramp.
- ___ Measure and record the distance travelled.
- ___ Place the ramp at the marked height.
- ___ Release the coin without pushing it.

8 Testing surfaces with a coin: How many times is each surface tested?

- A 2 B 4
C 9 D 3

9 Testing surfaces with a coin: What type of text is this?

- A a book review B a poem
C a procedure D a narrative

10 Testing surfaces with a coin: Why are several surfaces tested?

- A to avoid measuring any result B to compare how each surface affects the distance
C to make the ramp taller each time D to change the size of the object

11 Testing surfaces with a coin: Which material would be the best replacement for cork?

- A a woollen mat B a glass sheet
C smooth foil D polished plastic

12 Testing surfaces with a coin: Using both texts, where should the coin travel the shortest distance?

- A ceramic tile B in the air
C on no surface D cork

Nina's guide to three kinds of fitness · Questions 13–18

During a health lesson at the farm, Nina's class learned that a sedentary person spends long periods sitting and moving very little. Regular activity helps the heart, muscles and joints. Aerobic activities such as skipping make the heart beat faster. Strength activities such as rowing make muscles work against resistance. Flexibility activities such as reaching exercises help joints move through a comfortable range. Each type has a different purpose, so doing only one type leaves out other benefits. Children can build activity into ordinary days by walking, playing active games and helping with safe physical jobs. Activity should suit the person's ability and surroundings. A balanced week includes all three kinds, water, sleep and time to rest.

- 13 Nina's guide to three kinds of fitness: What does sedentary mean in this text?
- A moving safely in deep water B stretching every muscle
C spending much time sitting and moving very little D training for a race every day

- 14 Nina's guide to three kinds of fitness: Match each fitness type to its description.
- aerobic ____ strength ____ flexibility ____
- A helps joints move comfortably B makes the heart beat faster C makes muscles work against resistance

- 15 Nina's guide to three kinds of fitness: Which activity is aerobic?
- A skipping B rowing
C reaching exercises D sitting quietly

- 16 Nina's guide to three kinds of fitness: Complete the sentence using two words from the box.
- A balanced week includes ____ activity and time to ____.

Word box: regular • rest • sedentary • resistance • range

- 17 Nina's guide to three kinds of fitness: Which statement is most likely true of a fit person?
- A They do only one kind of activity. B They sit still for most of every day.
C They can use heart, muscles and joints in different activities. D They never need to rest.

- 18 Nina's guide to three kinds of fitness: What is the main message of the text?
- A Muscles are the only part of fitness. B Different kinds of activity help the body in different ways.
C Only competitive sport improves fitness. D Rest should replace all exercise.

Review: Tiny Inventors · Questions 30–34Tiny Inventors by Lucy Chen

This information book contains surprising facts, labelled pictures and short explanations. Its chapters move from simple examples to less familiar ones. The opening chapter gives readers enough background to understand the later examples. The captions make the pictures easy to understand, and small fact boxes add details without interrupting the main explanation. The index is useful for finding a topic again. Some pages use words that younger readers may need to look up, and the final chapter feels too short. Even so, curious readers will probably return to the pictures and facts more than once. Rating: ★★☆☆☆

30 Review: Tiny Inventors: Who wrote the book being reviewed?

- A The reviewer B Lucy Chen
C Nina Lee D Layla Jones

31 Review: Tiny Inventors: What is the main purpose of the review?

- A to give information and an opinion about the book B to retell every chapter
C to sell equipment D to teach a science experiment

32 Review: Tiny Inventors: Which two topics are not included in the book?

- ☐ surprising facts ☐ a recipe ☐ labelled pictures
☐ chapter headings ☐ a fictional diary ☐ short explanations

33 Review: Tiny Inventors: What criticism does the reviewer make?

- A Every chapter repeats the same page. B The title is missing.
C Some words are difficult and the final chapter is too short. D The book has no pictures.

34 Review: Tiny Inventors: What does the star rating show?

- A The reviewer read it five times. B The reviewer gives the book 3 out of 5.
C The book has five authors. D The book contains five chapters.

Nina's story: The missing label · Questions 35–39

Nina carried a heavy box into the farm. A loose corner caught on the doorway, and three dusty folders slid onto the floor. While stacking them, Nina noticed a brass key beneath the lowest folder. It was labelled with Layla's name. Nina remembered seeing Layla earlier, but could not remember which group had left first. Calling across the crowded room would only interrupt everyone. Nina wanted to return it at once, but the crowded room made the search difficult. Instead of guessing, Nina placed the object safely on the desk and asked the supervisor to check the visitor list. The supervisor found a contact note and sent a short message. Soon Layla returned, relieved to see the missing object. The unpleasant job of moving the box had led to a welcome surprise.

35 Nina's story: The missing label: Match each describing word to the noun it describes.

heavy ____ dusty ____ crowded ____

A room B box C folders

36 Nina's story: The missing label: Number these events from 1 to 4.

____ The supervisor checked the visitor list.

____ The box caught on the doorway.

____ Layla returned for the object.

____ Nina found the brass key.

37 Nina's story: The missing label: Which word best describes Nina?

A selfish B impatient

C responsible D careless

38 Nina's story: The missing label: Why was it difficult for Nina to return the object immediately?

A The visitor list had been destroyed. B The room was crowded and the owner was not easy to find.

C The object was too large to lift. D The supervisor refused to help.

39 Nina's story: The missing label: Why is The missing label a suitable title?

A An inconvenient task leads to an unexpected discovery. B The story explains how to build a box.

C The characters compete in a race. D The story is mainly about bad weather.

The toy that came to life

Write a narrative about a wind-up mouse that suddenly comes to life in a farm.

Your story may be amusing or serious.

- What can the wind-up mouse do when it becomes alive?
- How does it feel, and what does it want?
- Who sees it, and how do they react?
- What complication happens before the story can end?

Remember

- Plan the setting, characters, complication and ending.
- Use paragraphs to organise the events.
- Choose precise words and complete sentences.
- Check spelling, punctuation and sentence boundaries.

The narrative explains that the crowded room made the search difficult.

R39 · A. An inconvenient task leads to an unexpected discovery.

The title links the awkward task with the discovered object and happy outcome.

Numeracy · N1–N18

N1 · C. 17

$34 - 17 = 17$.

N10 · B. 2 of 6 equal parts

Two of six equal parts is $\frac{2}{6}$, which simplifies to $\frac{1}{3}$.

N2 · 20

$11 + 9 = 20$.

N11 · A. 45

$78 - 33 = 45$.

N3 · A. 41

The sequence increases by 5 each time.

N12 · D. 8:40

The bell time is the start plus 25 minutes: 8:40.

N4 · D. $6 + 6 + 6 + 6 + 6 + 6 + 6$

7 groups of 6 total 42.

N13 · 92

$47 + 45 = 92$.

N5 · C. 22

The full grid has 24 squares; 2 are removed, leaving 22.

N14 · 36

$93 - 57 = 36$.

N6 · 11

The groups decrease by 3: 20, 17, 14, 11.

N15 · A. $1.80

$$5.90 - $4.10 = $1.80$.

N7 · A. 2

$10 \div 5 = 2$ items per shell.

N16 · D. 3:30

Add 30 minutes to the time shown.

N8 · D. circle

Looking straight down at a cone shows its circular base.

N17 · E. garden

The map order shows the named room immediately after the office when moving east.

N9 · C. 741

Place the greatest possible digit in the hundreds place while keeping an odd digit in the ones place.

N18 · B. X

Capital X has vertical line symmetry in the printed form shown.

Numeracy · N19–N36

N19 · A. 9

9 badges cost $36; one more would cost more than $39.

N28 · 48

Halfway is 58 km; $58 - 10 = 48$ km remain.

N20 · A; C

Count the unit squares: shapes A and C contain the same number.

N29 · C. 29, 35, 41, 47

The equally spaced marks increase by 6.

N21 · 40

There are 10 cubes. $10 \times 4 = 40$ g.

N30 · B. 0

8 dozen is 96; dividing by 8 leaves 0.

N22 · 103; 87

Subtract 8 each time; both selected values occur in the sequence.

N31 · A. 25 kg

The scales show about 52 kg and 27 kg; the difference is about 25 kg.

N23 · 36

The digits are 3 and 6, so the number is 36.

N32 · D. 67

The pattern increases by 7, so the preceding value is 67.

N24 · D. 2

The hemisphere contributes one curved surface and the cylinder contributes one curved side.

N33 · 25

$107 - (27 + 30 + 25) = 25$.

N25 · $14.50

One cup costs $2.90; five cost $14.50.

N34 · B. 5

B has 23 votes and A has 18; the difference is 5.

N26 · B. 112

$4 \times 28 = 112$.

N35 · A. Spinner C

Spinner C has the smallest blue sector compared with its whole circle.

N27 · 11

$26 - 15 = 11$ degrees.

N36 · $24

$8 \times $2 + 8 \times $1 = $24$.
