Should our school have a weekly class walk? · Questions 35–39

In Rory's class, some students want the school to have a weekly class walk. Supporters say it would give children a useful choice and could make break times more interesting. They also suggest starting with a short trial so the school can see how well the idea works. Other people worry about cost, space and supervision. These concerns matter, but clear rules and a small trial could solve many problems. For these reasons, I think the school should test a weekly class walk for one term before making a final decision.

35 Why does the writer suggest a trial?

- A to make the idea more expensive B to test the idea before making a final decision
C to avoid making any rules D to guarantee that nobody disagrees

36 What does concerns mean here?

- A worries B celebrations
C instructions D answers

37 Choose the two problems the writer says clear rules may help solve.

- ☐ space ☐ supervision
☐ spelling ☐ sunrise

38 What is the writer's opinion?

- A The school should trial a weekly class walk for one term. B The school should ban a weekly class walk forever.
C No decision should ever be made. D Every school must use the idea immediately.

39 Which concern is mentioned?

- A book covers B bus timetables
C cost D weather forecasts
