Should our school have a lunchtime games shelf? · Questions 35–39

In Tara's class, some students want the school to have a lunchtime games shelf. Supporters say it would give children a useful choice and could make break times more interesting. They also suggest starting with a short trial so the school can see how well the idea works. Other people worry about cost, space and supervision. These concerns matter, but clear rules and a small trial could solve many problems. For these reasons, I think the school should test a lunchtime games shelf for one term before making a final decision.

- 35 Why does the writer suggest a trial?
- A to make the idea more expensive B to test the idea before making a final decision
C to avoid making any rules D to guarantee that nobody disagrees

- 36 What does concerns mean here?
- A worries B celebrations
C instructions D answers

- 37 What is the writer's opinion?
- A The school should trial a lunchtime games shelf for one term. B The school should ban a lunchtime games shelf forever.
C No decision should ever be made. D Every school must use the idea immediately.

- 38 What benefit do supporters mention?
- A It would remove every school rule. B It would need no supervision.
C It would create more classroom space. D It could make break times more interesting.

- 39 Which concern is mentioned?
- A book covers B bus timetables
C cost D weather forecasts
