Why a marble slows down · Questions 1–6

A force is a push or a pull. When a moving marble touches a surface, friction acts in the opposite direction to its movement. Friction makes the marble slow down. A smooth surface such as glass usually creates less friction than rubber mat. With very little friction, an object travels farther before stopping. The amount of friction also depends on how firmly two surfaces press together. Friction is useful too: it helps shoes grip the ground and bicycle brakes stop wheels. Without enough friction, people could slip and tyres could slide. Too much friction can be unhelpful because moving parts may heat up or wear away, so machines sometimes use oil to reduce it.

1 Why a marble slows down: What makes the moving marble slow down?

- A sound pushing it forward B friction acting against its movement
C gravity pulling it sideways D light warming the surface

2 Why a marble slows down: What would most likely happen if there were very little friction?

- A The marble would travel farther before stopping. B The marble would become heavier.
C The marble would change colour. D The marble would stop at once.

3 Why a marble slows down: Mark each statement True or False.

Statement	True	False
Friction can help bicycle brakes work.	☐	☐
Rubber Mat usually creates less friction than glass.	☐	☐
Friction acts against a moving object.	☐	☐

4 Why a marble slows down: Which surface would probably let the object travel farthest?

- A a thick towel B a rubber mat
C glass D rubber mat

5 Why a marble slows down: Which diagram shows the applied force and friction acting in opposite directions?

- A push ↓ friction ↓ B push → ← friction
C push → friction → D push ← friction ←

6 Why a marble slows down: Which pair of statements is correct?

- 1 The text explains how friction changes movement.
2 The text gives examples of useful friction.
3 The text tells a fictional adventure.
A 1 and 2 B 1 and 3
C 2 and 3 D 3 only

Testing surfaces with a marble · Questions 7–12

This experiment compares how far the same marble travels across glass, paper and rubber mat. Use the same ramp each time.

1. Place the ramp at the marked height.
2. Put glass at the bottom of the ramp.
3. Release the marble without pushing it.
4. Measure and record the distance travelled.
5. Repeat the trial 3 times for each surface, then compare the results.

7 Testing surfaces with a marble: Number these steps from 1 to 4.

- ___ Put glass at the bottom of the ramp.
- ___ Measure and record the distance travelled.
- ___ Place the ramp at the marked height.
- ___ Release the marble without pushing it.

8 Testing surfaces with a marble: How many times is each surface tested?

- A 9 B 3
C 2 D 4

9 Testing surfaces with a marble: What type of text is this?

- A a procedure B a narrative
C a book review D a poem

10 Testing surfaces with a marble: Why are several surfaces tested?

- A to make the ramp taller each time B to change the size of the object
C to avoid measuring any result D to compare how each surface affects the distance

11 Testing surfaces with a marble: Which material would be the best replacement for rubber mat?

- A smooth foil B polished plastic
C a woollen mat D a glass sheet

12 Testing surfaces with a marble: Using both texts, where should the marble travel the shortest distance?

- A on no surface B rubber mat
C glass D in the air

Mia's guide to three kinds of fitness · Questions 13–18

During a health lesson at the museum, Mia's class learned that a sedentary person spends long periods sitting and moving very little. Regular activity helps the heart, muscles and joints. Aerobic activities such as fast walking make the heart beat faster. Strength activities such as carrying groceries make muscles work against resistance. Flexibility activities such as dance stretches help joints move through a comfortable range. Each type has a different purpose, so doing only one type leaves out other benefits. Children can build activity into ordinary days by walking, playing active games and helping with safe physical jobs. Activity should suit the person's ability and surroundings. A balanced week includes all three kinds, water, sleep and time to rest.

13 Mia's guide to three kinds of fitness: What does sedentary mean in this text?

- A spending much time sitting and moving very little B training for a race every day
C moving safely in deep water D stretching every muscle

14 Mia's guide to three kinds of fitness: Match each fitness type to its description.

aerobic ____ strength ____ flexibility ____

- A helps joints move comfortably B makes the heart beat faster C makes muscles work against resistance

15 Mia's guide to three kinds of fitness: Which activity is aerobic?

- A dance stretches B sitting quietly
C fast walking D carrying groceries

16 Mia's guide to three kinds of fitness: Complete the sentence using two words from the box.

A balanced week includes ____ activity and time to ____.

Word box: regular • rest • sedentary • resistance • range

17 Mia's guide to three kinds of fitness: Which statement is most likely true of a fit person?

- A They can use heart, muscles and joints in different activities. B They never need to rest.
C They do only one kind of activity. D They sit still for most of every day.

18 Mia's guide to three kinds of fitness: What is the main message of the text?

- A Only competitive sport improves fitness. B Rest should replace all exercise.
C Muscles are the only part of fitness. D Different kinds of activity help the body in different ways.

Review: Secrets of the Sea · Questions 30–34

Secrets of the Sea by Priya Shah

This information book contains surprising facts, labelled pictures and short explanations. Its chapters move from simple examples to less familiar ones. The opening chapter gives readers enough background to understand the later examples. The captions make the pictures easy to understand, and small fact boxes add details without interrupting the main explanation. The index is useful for finding a topic again. Some pages use words that younger readers may need to look up, and the final chapter feels too short. Even so, curious readers will probably return to the pictures and facts more than once. Rating: ★★☆☆☆

30 Review: Secrets of the Sea: Who wrote the book being reviewed?

- A Mia Lee B Dylan Jones
C The reviewer D Priya Shah

31 Review: Secrets of the Sea: What is the main purpose of the review?

- A to sell equipment B to teach a science experiment
C to give information and an opinion about the book D to retell every chapter

32 Review: Secrets of the Sea: Which two topics are not included in the book?

- ☐ surprising facts ☐ a recipe ☐ labelled pictures
☐ chapter headings ☐ a fictional diary ☐ short explanations

33 Review: Secrets of the Sea: What criticism does the reviewer make?

- A Some words are difficult and the final chapter is too short. B The book has no pictures.
C Every chapter repeats the same page. D The title is missing.

34 Review: Secrets of the Sea: What does the star rating show?

- A The book has five authors. B The book contains five chapters.
C The reviewer read it five times. D The reviewer gives the book 3 out of 5.

Mia's story: The stubborn knot · Questions 35–39

Mia carried a heavy box into the museum. A loose corner caught on the doorway, and three dusty folders slid onto the floor. While stacking them, Mia noticed a red notebook beneath the lowest folder. It was labelled with Dylan's name. Mia remembered seeing Dylan earlier, but could not remember which group had left first. Calling across the crowded room would only interrupt everyone. Mia wanted to return it at once, but the crowded room made the search difficult. Instead of guessing, Mia placed the object safely on the desk and asked the supervisor to check the visitor list. The supervisor found a contact note and sent a short message. Soon Dylan returned, relieved to see the missing object. The unpleasant job of moving the box had led to a welcome surprise.

35 Mia's story: The stubborn knot: Match each describing word to the noun it describes.

heavy ____ dusty ____ crowded ____

A room B box C folders

36 Mia's story: The stubborn knot: Number these events from 1 to 4.

____ The supervisor checked the visitor list.

____ The box caught on the doorway.

____ Dylan returned for the object.

____ Mia found the red notebook.

37 Mia's story: The stubborn knot: Which word best describes Mia?

A responsible B careless

C selfish D impatient

38 Mia's story: The stubborn knot: Why was it difficult for Mia to return the object immediately?

A The object was too large to lift. B The supervisor refused to help.

C The visitor list had been destroyed. D The room was crowded and the owner was not easy to find.

39 Mia's story: The stubborn knot: Why is The stubborn knot a suitable title?

A The characters compete in a race. B The story is mainly about bad weather.

C An inconvenient task leads to an unexpected discovery. D The story explains how to build a box.

The toy that came to life

Write a narrative about a tin robot that suddenly comes to life in a museum.

Your story may be amusing or serious.

- What can the tin robot do when it becomes alive?
- How does it feel, and what does it want?
- Who sees it, and how do they react?
- What complication happens before the story can end?

Remember

- Plan the setting, characters, complication and ending.
- Use paragraphs to organise the events.
- Choose precise words and complete sentences.
- Check spelling, punctuation and sentence boundaries.

The narrative explains that the crowded room made the search difficult.

R39 · C. An inconvenient task leads to an unexpected discovery.

The title links the awkward task with the discovered object and happy outcome.

Numeracy · N1–N18

N1 · A. 11

$28 - 17 = 11$.

N10 · C. 2 of 6 equal parts

Two of six equal parts is $\frac{2}{6}$, which simplifies to $\frac{1}{3}$.

N2 · 17

$10 + 7 = 17$.

N11 · B. 39

$66 - 27 = 39$.

N3 · C. 43

The sequence increases by 7 each time.

N12 · B. 8:50

The bell time is the start plus 25 minutes: 8:50.

N4 · B. $4 + 4 + 4 + 4 + 4 + 4$

6 groups of 4 total 24.

N13 · 74

$41 + 33 = 74$.

N5 · A. 30

The full grid has 32 squares; 2 are removed, leaving 30.

N14 · 30

$81 - 51 = 30$.

N6 · 10

The groups decrease by 3: 19, 16, 13, 10.

N15 · C. $1.80

$$5.30 - $3.50 = $1.80$.

N7 · C. 2

$14 \div 7 = 2$ items per shell.

N16 · B. 5:30

Add 30 minutes to the time shown.

N8 · B. circle

Looking straight down at a cone shows its circular base.

N17 · A. hall

The map order shows the named room immediately after the office when moving east.

N9 · A. 725

Place the greatest possible digit in the hundreds place while keeping an odd digit in the ones place.

N18 · D. M

Capital M has vertical line symmetry in the printed form shown.

Numeracy · N19–N36

N19 · C. 8

8 badges cost $48; one more would cost more than $53.

N28 · 36

Halfway is 46 km; $46 - 10 = 36$ km remain.

N20 · A; C

Count the unit squares: shapes A and C contain the same number.

N29 · A. 23, 31, 39, 47

The equally spaced marks increase by 8.

N21 · 60

There are 10 cubes. $10 \times 6 = 60$ g.

N30 · C. 4

7 dozen is 84; dividing by 10 leaves 4.

N22 · 79; 59

Subtract 10 each time; both selected values occur in the sequence.

N31 · C. 19 kg

The scales show about 40 kg and 21 kg; the difference is about 19 kg.

N23 · 36

The digits are 3 and 6, so the number is 36.

N32 · B. 49

The pattern increases by 9, so the preceding value is 49.

N24 · B. 2

The hemisphere contributes one curved surface and the cylinder contributes one curved side.

N33 · 25

$89 - (21 + 24 + 19) = 25$.

N25 · $11.50

One cup costs $2.30; five cost $11.50.

N34 · D. 5

B has 17 votes and A has 12; the difference is 5.

N26 · D. 162

$6 \times 27 = 162$.

N35 · C. Spinner C

Spinner C has the smallest blue sector compared with its whole circle.

N27 · 13

$27 - 14 = 13$ degrees.

N36 · $23

$8 \times $2 + 7 \times $1 = $23$.
